I'll Stand in the Rain

by Leslie Monaghan

I have no voice. I feel no pain.
I'll stand beside you each step of the way.
I'll see you through. There's work left to do
So no more lives will be lost in vain
I'll stand in the rain.

I'll take my place, though you can't see my face.
You can't see my eyes, all the tears that they've cried.
You can't feel my heart, but I'll do my part
To help bring awareness from out of the dark.
I'll do my part.

Chorus:
I'll stand in the rain. I'll stand in the snow.
I'll carry my message wherever I go.
To bring peace and healing…to help the world change
I'll stand in the rain.

I'll stand in the rain. I'll weather each storm
In hope that compassion will one day be the norm
My voice may be gone, but my spirit is strong
I'll stand in the rain.

Don't turn away. Don't close your eyes.
My friends, it's time to realize
There's lots to do. Reach out your hand,
We'll heal the pain across this land
Together we'll stand.

We'll stand in the rain. We'll stand in the snow.
We'll carry our message so people will know
Our voices are gone but our spirits live on
We'll stand in the rain.
We'll stand in the rain.
We'll weather each storm
In hope that compassion will one day be the norm
Our voices are silent,
our spirits remain
We'll stand in the rain.

If we all work together, we will see a new day…
…We'll stand in the rain.
Our voices are gone, but our spirits live on…
